

PITCH THE SANDBOX

Open invitation to Saskatchewan artists of all disciplines and backgrounds to make a pitch for the Sandbox Series.

We're looking outside the bounds of a formal submission process so artists can introduce themselves and their work to us however they want. Think outside the box: pitch a show, your theatre company, yourself, a new form of working, etc. We are looking for pitches for performance projects for the next two seasons of the Sandbox Series in 2020|2021 and 2021|2022. These two Sandbox seasons will be happening in a new and as yet undetermined venue during the renovation of the Prince Edward Building.

In attendance will be Geoffrey Whynot, Interim Artistic Director and Andrew Ritchie, Sandbox Series Coordinator. Everyone gets 10 minutes to pitch followed by a conversation with Geoff and Andrew.

Deadline to submit is October 28, 2019. To sign up, please email andrewr@globetheatrelive.com, and we'll let you know by November 25, 2019 if we have a spot for you and your pitch.

Pitches will be scheduled for Monday December 9, 2019.
