

DEVELOPMENT MANAGER

Are you a high-energy team player seeking to develop and enhance your fundraising skills and successes in a creative, collaborative environment? Join the team at Saskatchewan's largest performing arts organization and find out for yourself why "Live is Better".

How you'll spend your time:

- Designing and leading fundraising campaigns (individual and corporate);
- Creating and selling integrated sponsorships for new and existing corporate partners;
- Providing leadership and logistical support to corporate and fundraising events.

What we're looking for:

- A dynamic go-getter with experience in fundraising in a not-for-profit environment;
- A stickler for detail who enjoys raising funds and securing sponsorships in support of a great cause;
- A skilled communicator and great listener with a flair for writing and conversation.

What we can offer:

- Great people;
- A competitive benefits package, including a personal wellness fund;
- A fun, flexible, fast-paced work environment;
- A team-oriented, cooperative atmosphere where the efforts of all employees are focused on the supporting the art on our stages;
- Connection with artists from across the country;
- A commitment to promoting an inclusive, diverse and accessible community.

Interested? Email a cover letter and resume in confidence by July 30, 2018, to:

Ruth Smillie, Artistic Director and CEO
Globe Theatre
1801 Scarth Street
Regina SK S4P 2G9
E-mail: ruths@globetheatrelive.com

Globe Theatre would like to thank all applicants for their interest in this position; however, only those candidates selected for an interview will be contacted.