

Globe Theatre School:
Ruth Smillie Scholarship - Youth Application Form

Thanks to the generous support of the Rawlinson Family, the Ruth Smillie scholarship supports students who have financial barriers to participation. This fund will provide children with the opportunity to gain valuable life skills through an enriched arts education experience.

For students 12 years and under – Parents/guardians are asked to:

- Write a short paragraph outlining why you want your child to attend Globe Theatre School, and what you hope they will learn.
- Potentially meet with the theatre school coordinator for a brief interview.

Please fill in the application below and submit it with your paragraph directly to the theatre school director. You may submit online to shaunnad@globetheatrelive.com or mail your application to:
