Jennifer Brewin

Artistic Director

When we were planning this upcoming season, I was reminded of that wonderful question, “How do you make God laugh?”

This season, we celebrate the twists and turns of well laid plans as we anticipate our return to Scarth Street in the fall of 2024.

The plays in our 2023/2024 season hint at what’s to come and celebrate what we love: music, improv, holiday magic and always great stories with a Prairie flavour.

We also embrace the spirit of the times. The theme of upturned expectations lives in each of the plays in one form or another — a date that doesn’t show up, a skunk that does, big musical numbers in a tiny theatre, and a kid who dodges every obstacle in front of her to become a great scientist. Like our audiences, the characters in these plays manage the roller coasters of life with humour, determination, and friendship.

Next season shows off great performances. I love how hard actors work to make it look easy. I love how they love to delight and mesmerize us. Each production invites audiences to revel in the virtuosity of great performances from national icons and local superstars who will make this next season sparkle.

On behalf of everyone at the Globe, I invite you to join us on the final stretch of our adventure back to Scarth Street.

4 GREAT SHOWS 2 ICONIC VENUES

Darke Hall

We launch the season in Darke Hall, a space that has been host and witness to the rich performing arts history in our city. This newly renovated and beautiful concert hall features modern amenities and accessibility features.

Shows: Blind Date

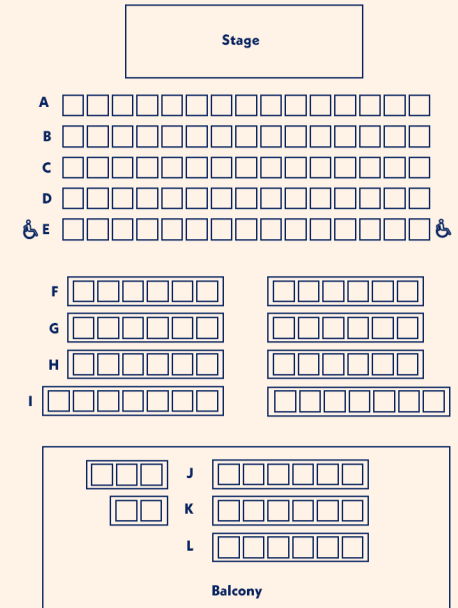

The Artesian

Inspired by the venue's intimate charm, we offer three different productions that revel in the magic of theatre. For four months we will fill the space with holiday merriment, Broadway music, and prairie stories. The Artesian is the cultural hub and creative home to so many of the province's independent musicians and theatre creators.

Shows:

Making Spirits Brighter, The Globe Cabaret: A Musical Revue, and Cafe Daughter

Globe Theatre Presents:

Blind Date

October 18th - November 5th 2023

Opening Night: October 20th

Starring Tess Degenstein

A Spontaneous Theatre creation by Rebecca Northan

Part improv, part romance, part social experiment, and ALL spontaneously magical!

The award-winning hit show, Blind Date, comes to Regina's Globe Theatre after playing off-Broadway, in London's West End, and all across Canada & the US!

When Mimi's date for the evening fails to show up, she turns to the audience for someone willing to answer love's call. What happens next is anybody's guess, and different each night. This is theatre at its most thrilling, and you will want to see it again and again. Featuring international powerhouse actor and home-grown Saskatchewan talent - Tess Degenstein.

Mimi is open to dates of any gender, on any night.

Location: Darke Hall at the University of Regina

Making Spirits Brighter

November 29th - December 23rd, 2023

Opening Night: December 1st

Featuring holiday stories by authors W.O. Mitchell, Thomas King, along with two timeless tales; The Night Before Christmas and The Mitten.

Join us for our holiday tradition as beloved holiday stories are transformed through the magic of old-timey radio drama!

Jump back into our cozy little snow globe that is The Artesian and join us as we tune up the radio wires for a new version of our sold-out holiday tradition from 2021 and 2022. This year we bring to life four different stories, Frankincents an' Meer by W.O. Mitchell, Coyote's New Suit by Thomas King, a new translation of the Ukrainian folk tale The Mitten and The Night Before Christmas by Clement Clarke Moore. Join us to celebrate holiday merrymaking and seasonal tradition all against the backdrop of an old-fashioned radio play.

Location: The Artesian

The Globe Cabaret: A Musical Theatre Revue

January 24th - February 11th, 2024
Opening Night: January 26th

Featuring local superstars and national icons.

Move your way through Broadway, The West End, and The Globe's past with your favourite songs from the Musical Theatre Canon!

Join the Globe Theatre for a trip down musical theatre memory lane. This cabaret will thrill audiences with hits from our past and introduce songs from shows yet to come. Be amazed as our design team transforms the Artesian into the Moulin Rouge, The Kit Kat, and Onyx Clubs all rolled into one! Transport yourself through Globe Theatre's musical past and introduce yourself to the latest works coming out of Broadway Musical Theatre and dream about what's to come on our new stage.

Location: The Artesian

Cafe Daughter

By Kenneth T. Williams

March 6th - March 24th, 2024
Opening Night: March 8th

An inspiring story of loss, defying odds, and pursuing your dreams while claiming your heritage.

Inspired by the real-life childhood of Saskatchewan's retired Senator and neuroscientist Dr. Lillian Dyck, Cafe Daughter is the story of a whip smart kid in 1957 Saskatchewan navigating three different cultures in pursuit of her dream to be a scientist. Her Chinese immigrant father has his own ideas of what a daughter should grow up to be and her Cree mother will do anything to protect her from pernicious racism that nullifies hope. The driving action in this astonishing play is Yvette's determination to defy odds and fulfill her ambitions. Cafe Daughter has captivated audiences in Edmonton, Calgary, and most recently over a sold-out run in Blyth, Ontario.

Welcome to our 2023-24 season! As we prepare for the upcoming season, we are also thinking about what 2024-2025 will look like when we move back into our newly renovated Prince Edward Building. We are grateful to our loyal patrons who have stuck with us during the renovation and the pandemic, supporting us as we dated around town at various locations and tried new things.

Our next season promises much of the same, with teasers of what is to come as we approach the grand reopening of The Globe!

At a time when live performing arts organizations are struggling, we want to say thank you for continuing on this adventure with us.

So, let us entertain you around town for one more season! I look forward to seeing you at Darke Hall and the Artesian!
